Benefits: Health, dental, vision, retirement and other competitive benefits

Recruitment Opens: June 13, 2018

Deadline to Apply: Open until filled

THE POSITION

The Office of the City Attorney seeks a top level attorney for the position of Deputy City Attorney V with expertise in municipal law. The attorney likely will supervise attorneys currently in the General Government & Finance Unit and possibly other practice areas. Relevant expertise includes general municipal law practice areas including municipal finance (bonds, taxation, fees, and assessments), public ethics, conflicts of interest, elections, open meetings, public records, parliamentary procedure, public contracting and city charter and constitutional law. Experience in supervising employees, labor/employment, and serving as counsel to City Council committees, boards and commissions is a plus.

Deputy City Attorney V is a management level position. The incumbent may perform and supervise a wide range of duties involving municipal law, public contracting, municipal finance, taxes and fees, formation of special assessment and other districts, public ethics, conflicts of interest, elections law, redistricting, campaign and lobbyist regulations, parliamentary procedure, open meetings, public records, constitutional law, charter interpretations, and other practice areas outlined above. The incumbent may also supervise assigned staff attorneys that handle a wide range of practice areas.

Duties may include but are not limited to:

- Preparing, reviewing and overseeing legal opinions, ordinances, resolutions, contracts and other legal documents.
- Providing expert advice and legal opinions on general government matters such as municipal finance, taxes and fees, formation of special assessment and other financing districts, public ethics, conflict of interest, elections law, redistricting, public contracting, open meetings, public records, constitutional law and parliamentary procedure to the City Administrator and other City executives, the Mayor, City Council and City departments, boards and commissions.

- Supervising assigned staff attorneys, reviewing written opinions, legislation and reports of assigned attorneys, preparing annual performance evaluations and carrying out other management duties as assigned.
- Working closely with the City Administrator, elected officials and agency and department executives to ensure compliance with laws and City policies, and keeping City officials apprised of the developments in current law and their duties and powers.
- Representing the City Attorney at meetings of the City Council, City Council committees and other public meetings and providing advice on parliamentary procedure, Brown Act and local open meeting laws.

QUALIFICATIONS, EXPERIENCE & EDUCATION

Deputy City Attorney V is the highest classification in the Deputy City Attorney series. The minimum required experience is one year of increasingly responsible work experience comparable to a Deputy City Attorney IV in the City of Oakland, or ten years professional experience in relevant areas of law.

The ideal candidate will have expert knowledge of and extensive experience in several areas of municipal law.

The candidate will have a demonstrated ability to handle and master new and diverse areas of law and procedure, and to analyze and research applicable laws, including state and federal and local laws that apply to the City of Oakland.

The candidate will have a demonstrated ability to draft legislation and legal opinions and spot legal issues.

Expertise in areas such as municipal finance, ethics and conflict of interest, elections law, redistricting and open government laws, public contracting, labor/employment and constitutional law is desirable.

Experience in management of attorneys/legal teams is desirable.

The incumbent must be a graduate of an accredited law school and a member in good standing of the California State Bar.

Bilingual skills are desirable, especially in Spanish, Cantonese and/or Mandarin.

Incumbents in this position are expected to operate automotive vehicles in the performance of assigned duties. Due to assignments and hours of work, public transportation may not be an efficient method for traveling to required locations. Selected individuals will be required to maintain a valid California Driver's License during City employment or demonstrate the ability to travel to required locations in a timely manner.
